Looking for a good reason to visit Georgia? Well, look no further than Duo Georgian, a new restaurant in Mayfair serving delicious Georgian dishes and wine. The founders, Giorgi Kumsishvili and Nino Kharatishvili, wanted to open a restaurant that showcased the best of Georgian food and wine in a modern setting. The result is a beautiful space with a menu that is full of delicious dishes to share. The menu was created by executive chef Nino Kharatishvili, who has been cooking in the Georgian mountains, valleys, and villages for 20 years. The menu is a mix of traditional Georgian dishes and modern creations, all of which are delicious. The restaurant is open from 12pm to 12am every day. The menu was designed by executive chef Nino Kharatishvili, who has been cooking in the Georgian mountains, valleys, and villages for 20 years. The menu is a mix of traditional Georgian dishes and modern creations, all of which are delicious. The restaurant is open from 12pm to 12am every day.

Also, for those of you who want to visit the real Georgia, the Tbilisi Tourism Board is hosting a free walking tour (starting Georgian time) for 10 years every day at 1 pm.